

buon gusto

for people with good taste

New Products

Chocolate, chocolate, chocolate. The holiday season is among us, and for anyone with a sweet tooth, this is the time to indulge in the marvelous cocoa bean. We've found some yummy chocolates that shouldn't be missed, starting with a new line of organic, tea-infused bars called Joanie's Smiles. Odd name, yes, and the flavors are also a little unusual; White Chocolate Rosemary-Hibiscus Tea, Milk Chocolate Cranberry-Ginger Tea, and Dark Chocolate Coconut-Green Tea are a few of the combinations owner and pastry chef Joanie Freeman has developed. To make indulging in these treats even sweeter, 5% of the company profits go to Operation Smile, which aids children all over the world suffering from cleft palates and facial deformities. Visit www.joaniessmiles.com for more information.