

May 16, 2005

NATIONAL Jeweler

Profitable Retailing Through Market Insights and News Analysis

suppliernews

Opera necklace from Rahaminov.

Rahaminov Diamonds intros new jewelry line

Rahaminov Diamonds, wholesaler of loose diamonds up to 30 carats, has announced its exclusive new line of original jewelry designs in platinum and white gold.

Available only to the trade, the line includes rings, earrings, bracelets, pendants, necklaces and sets featuring white and fancy-color diamonds, in mountings created exclusively by Rahaminov Diamonds, now in its 62nd year. The new line can be viewed at the company's office in Los Angeles.

The signature piece in the new line is the "Hearts of Love" diamond and white gold opera necklace, available in a variety of sizes. The necklace may be worn as a 34-inch piece, by layering the 16- and 18-inch segments or by wearing each separately.

Rahaminov principals Amir and Tamara Goldfiner are Gemological Institute America (GIA) alumni and are affiliated with the West Coast Diamond Club, Jewelers Board of Trade, Rapaport, Polygon and are members of GIA and the Women's Jewelry Association.

> www.rahaminovdiamond.com