Dear Vive,

Thank you for introducing me to Tummy Tuck Jeans! I read about them in your last issue ("Vive View," April/May 2006) and I had to try them out. I just recently had a baby and have been battling to lose the last of my baby weight. I was avoiding wearing my jeans because I feared they looked unflattering and tight. After reading the piece in the magazine, I took a look at the Tummy Tuck Jeans Web site and realized there is hope for my not-quite-as-flat-as-it-used-to-be tummy! I can't wait until my new pair arrives.

Thanks again.
